every year, on new years day, the family would go to a Hungarian restaurant, since our dad was from Hungary. it was a tradition that we kept from early childhood. in this photo, although not very visible, i am on the left in the suit, speaking to my cousin Daniel and my father just after and i can't tell who else lingered in the darkness. i don't know if it was kevin (or my ex-wife Sid) who took the photo? because he isn't in it, and of course that's my sister (RIP) and brother in front.

She was a wonderful and amazing person. I barely know what the road ahead will be. I love Aunt Jackie so much and I wish I could be with her every day. But she know longer is sick and she is a better place now. I hope she is doing great in heaven and I will think about her every single day. I love her and her family soooo much. I hope she remembers me and I will always remember her. I can not say this enough but I lover her.

Jackie – You were a true friend to me and my family. Our family will cherish our time together. The laughs during cook-offs and bake-offs were some of our best memories during our time in Parkland. You have a generous and loving spirit. Kevin, Brooke and Sydney – may you find peace and comfort during this difficult time and may you feel the warm embrace of our God.

Dearest Gina, My heart is broken with your loss among the living, yet I feel you within and all around me. Life wasn't easy in our upbringing and somehow seemingly our relationship struggled, tearing us apart more than being together but the distance for me never changed what I feel, no doubt, LOVE and HONORED that you were a part of me and will always be. You chose to part ways on my birthday of all days, based on my logic and experiences I doubt there's any coincidence and a message for me to unravel, but for what I feel as a result, we are as close as can be, you were always and will always be a big and special part of me. I LOVE YOU! REST IN PEACE. Your Baby Brother... Ed Prayers to all who share the loss, the world has certainly been reduced by the absence of someone very special.

My dad, Sister and younger brother in Riverside park

Mark Smith January 7 at 7:11 AM

My dad loved all 3 of us without question, but my sister was his diamond. It wasn't easy for her being the only female in the household growing up, but she turned out to be an amazing woman and the best mother I ever knew.

My sister was fiercely protective like a mama bear of her twins, yet she was remarkably calm as well. One day I met up with her at the playground, which are very large in a place like Manhattan, and there were lots and lots of kids playing all over this giant playground! I was not a parent yet and I was very nervous always trying to look for Brooke and Sydney, who were about 4 years old at the time. There were just so many kids and I couldn't keep track, because they were playing in entirely different parts of the playground on different swings, rides and slides etc. I was panicking and said "where is Brooke?" And my sister, who was busy talking to other moms in the playground, calmly said, "Calm down Mark, I know exactly where my kids are at all times, just relax." And I just remember thinking how awesome that was. I marveled at her bold strength and relaxed nature.

My choices were not always something my sister agreed with, but she was always very supportive, generous and kind. She was very loving towards my first wife of 10 years, and she was very loving toward my newborn daughter from my second marriage. My sister was an extraordinary mother and human being. I will miss her till my last breath. Love always, Mark
