I am in shock at his passing – this is a loss to all who knew him and were touched by him. But I am thankful for the lessons he has passed on to me and others and for having been privileged to call him a friend and mentor.

Alan was a great mentor and a friend. He was instrumental in my joining the Matrix Medical Network team in 2012 and his leadership was key to the success of our team and the many accomplishments that we achieved. Alan will be missed not only by his family but by all of those who he impacted professionally and personally.
