Barbara, my wonderful friend. Words cannot express my sorrow and heavy heart, to you both, at the loss of your beloved Scott. Taken much too early, he is now at peace, in the hands of God. I pray dearly for you both, hoping that the special memories you have and the special time you were given with your son will help to slowly soften the pain and help you during this most difficult time. Scott is your God-given gift, and, with time, more will be revealed. And I promise you, my friend, with time the gift of Scott and his life will warm your hearts. Love you, Susan L
