Dear Marvin, I am very sorry to hear of your loss. It has been many years since I met Joan but remember her as a fine person who brought happiness to your life. I'm sure you made her laugh and feel special, as you've done for so many in your lifetime, and I hope that the love that all of us feel for you brings comfort at this time. With sympathy for your loss and love and appreciation for you and the many kind words and deeds that you've shared with us all. Love, Maureen and Peter
