ALAN L. POSTMAN

POSTMAN, Alan L. age 77 of Delray Beach passed away on May 1st. Beloved husband of Laura Postman; Loving father of Barry (Colleen) Postman, Ilysa (Darren) Stupak, Seth Postman, Omar Otero, and Esther Otero; Cherished grandfather of Ryan, Matthew, Sarah, Max, and Carly; Dear brother of Valarie (Jeff) Terk, Richard (Jeannie) Postman, Sheryl Postman, and the late Giose Rimanelli. Alan was born on July 8, 1940 in Brooklyn, New York. He was a Captain in the U.S. Army Signal Corps and was honorably discharged. He was a graduate of New York University and then later Brooklyn Law School. He began his legal career as an Assistant District Attorney in New York City until he moved his family to Miami in 1973 where he served as Assistant Florida State Attorney in the Major Crimes office. Thereafter, he went into private practice handling criminal, civil and family matters. He was elected as Judge for Miami-Dade County in 1992 and served for 12 years. After retiring he served as a mediator, special master and umpire. He will be remembered for his smile, laugh and larger than life personality. Donations may be made to The Parkinson Foundation. Shiva at the Postman residence, 9224 Isle Cay Drive, Delray Beach, Fl. Sunday after the service until 8 pm and Monday from 2 pm to 4 pm.

ALAN L. POSTMAN

Judge David L. Levy (Ret.) posted:

I just learned of Alan's passing. I offer my sympathy and hearty condolences to his family. Alan was a uniquely great guy. He loved his family deeply. I served both in the Dade County State Attorney's Office and as a Circuit Judge with Alan. He was a man of compassion and great integrity. If you went to see a movie and it was a comedy, you'd always know if Alan and Laura were coincidentally in the same theater when you heard his deep and hardy laugh. It truly enhanced the experience. I will miss him. Judge David L. Levy (Ret.).
