Beno is my favorite Brother In Law and he will be missed. I wasn't so sure when I met him for the first time years ago, such a wild and crazy guy. But I know that he gave my sister a second chance at happiness, and I thank him for that. He was also a wonderful father to David, and to my nephews, Russ, David and Gary. Ben is a sweet, kind and gentle man. And he was very kind to our father, Jack, in his declining years, which we all know was sometimes not easy to do, and I thank him for that, as well. The Ben I know took almost everything in stride, no matter what the circumstances, including his early years in war torn Europe. I suspect he's taking this next step in stride, too, saying "Vot are you gonna do. Dot's eet!"
