Munroe K. Aaron

FEB 14, 2018

Aaron, Munroe 80, of Suffern, NY passed away on February 14, 2018. Survivors include his wife, Sondra; sons, Lee and Mark; daughters-in-law, Rina and Maryann, and five grandchildren, Dustin, Nikki, Elizabeth, David, and Ben. He is also survived by many close friends. He was born and raised in Bronx, NY. He attended college at the University of Rochester and Dental School at NYU. After graduation from NYU, he served in the Army as Captain at Fort Bragg, NC. He started his Dental Practice in Yonkers, NY where he maintained a practice for more than thirty years. He loved caring for people and was known as the “gentle dentist.” He was an avid photographer with a passion for pictures, cameras, and technology. He had numerous local photo exhibitions. Munroe was a soft spoken man with great pride in his work and his family. He cared for people and was always willing to help but his greatest joy was in the success and accomplishments of his sons and grandchildren.

Dr. Aaron will be laid to rest following his graveside funeral service at Sharon Gardens. Contributions in memory of Dr. Munroe K. Aaron may be sent to TrustBridge Hospice or PAP Corps-Northwest Chapter.
