Solomon Koved

AUG 23, 2017

Solomon Koved, 95 of Lantana, FL passed away on August 23, 2017. He was predeceased by Harriette, his wife of 54 years; Sylvia, his wife of 13 years and son Larry Wisch. He is survived by sons Lance (Joyce) Koved, and Alec (Dotty) Wisch; brother Fred Koved; grandchildren Amy, William, John, Sandy and Sarah, as well as his 13 great-grandchildren.

Solomon graduated from City College of NY with a degree in chemistry. After serving in the Army during World War II he worked for many years for Montrose Chemical Company in Newark, NJ. He concluded his career in the nuclear power industry. Solomon was well known for being the editor of "First Days" magazine for over 30 years. Solomon moved to Florida in 2002 after being raised in Bronx, NY and living in Cranford, NJ for 48 years.

A chapel service will be held at Beth Israel Memorial Chapel, 11115 Jog Road, Boynton Beach, FL 33437 on Sunday August 27th, 2017 beginning at 9:30AM. Entombment will follow at Eternal Light Memorial Gardens, Boynton Beach.

Memorial contributions may be made to the American Heart Association.

My condolences to the boys and their families, Sol loved you all so much. I remember Sol and I redecking and reroofing the garage on the house the temple owned next door. He was a joy to work with. I would enjoy his company for dinner when Harriette, of blessed memory, would leave him a note that she was going to NY and he was on his own for dinner. He was a kind and generous man and I truly missed him and Harriette when they moved from Cranford. A great man. May he rest in peace.

I am sorry to hear of the loss of Sol. I knew him for more than the thirty years that he edited First Days magazine for the American First Day Cover Society. He could be cantankerous at times but always had the best interests of the society and the hobby of first day cover collecting at heart. His knowledge and talent will be missed. Alan Warren
