❤️🙏 I was so glad and had the pleasure of knowing this generous intelligent and kind hearted woman. She like many of my customers share the same history, that I seem to understand the implications of being who she was In her generosity and her kind words toward others. I will miss her and her son chair across the street in Belmar New Jersey. I will plant a tree in her honor and remember her always as not only a neighbor but as a good friend Dennis

She had longevity, 101 years of it. And, rather than being overly bitter because of the loss of her family and being interned in six different concentration camps, she displayed a sense of happiness to all she encountered. I miss my mother terribly.
