There was something magical about Aunt Eunie's laugh, it was a Spiro laugh (Pop aka Grand Daddy) had it too! It was indescribably delightful, When I shut my eyes, I can see and hear it. Making either of them laugh was always the goal and when you did it, it was a big win! So sharp-witted! Sending you all much love, comfort and strength! To the blessed memory of the beloved matriarch of a wonderful family: Not a Super Bowl goes by that I do not recall the parties you hosted back when the championship game was in its adolescent years. My wife and I have now hosted such parties for more than 20 years and hopefully with at least an ounce of the love and attention you did. Steve Lash
