Mrs. Shirley I remember the days that I went to your house to get your nails done, we laughed so much, was a great day to share with an amazing person with a big smile and big heart, you will be missed. Paula (Norma's Daughter)

Mrs. Shirley, When my mother Norma (Angel), introduced me to you, was one of the most amazing things in my life. I started to look at life just the way you did. I never saw you upset, always smiling and happy. We will miss you forever! I am so thankful to teach me how to be happy no matter what. I know you are in a wonderful place now because your heart was so big and kind. God Bless Crisy
