We are very sad to learn that our cousin Leigh has passed away. I have fond childhood memories of Leigh in his parents beautiful home in Searingtown L.I. where we would enjoy Thanksgiving Dinners and Sunday gatherings. Always kind and interested in his younger cousin, he would talk with me. Later on as teens, when he visited my folks in Lake Louise Marie he introduced me to wind sailing. Living in Israel, we were far from the family but were grateful for opportunities to visit with Jane and Leigh in their home in New Jersey and, recently have come to know Laurel as a result of her visit to Israel. Dan joins me in sending our love and condolences to Jane and Laurel and the extended family.
