Eulogy for Ashlee Simone Lyons

Ashlee was our first granddaughter and we loved her dearly. We were so happy when she was born. She showed us how much joy a granddaughter could bring into our lives. She was such a beautiful child, always happy and laughing. She made friends easily and was a leader when she was young. We loved her dearly and she loved us. We are very thankful that she gave us three beautiful great-grandchildren, Jacob, David and Satori. We love them with all our hearts. She never missed calling us on special occasions, such as birthdays, anniversaries, Mother's Day and Father's Day. The last time we spoke to her was on Mother's Day when she called to wish Simone a happy Mother's Day. I will always miss the sound of her voice when she said on the phone "I love you, Granddad". She is gone from this earth now, but she will never be gone from our hearts. Goodbye Ashlee. We will always love you and miss you.

My Dearest Ashlee,

From the time I was carrying you inside me, I couldn't wait to meet you. You were my introduction to motherhood. I fell in love with you at first sight, and never knew how completely and unconditionally I could love another human being until I had you. Your smile and laugh were contagious and with your vivacious, outgoing personality you had the ability to make friends wherever you went. I always admired your artistic talents, the way that music touched your soul, your genuine kindness towards others, your generosity and above all your free spirit. The greatest gift that you gave our family was the blessing of your three beautiful children, Jacob, David and Satori. For this, I will be forever grateful.

Ashlee, although your time here with us was extremely short, you were able to touch the hearts of many people. The incredible closeness you shared for your entire life with your grandparents, Richard and Simone Croft, gave you an additional source of unconditional love and acceptance, and I know you loved them as much as anyone could ever love a grandparent. Throughout your life your special neshama was always able to shine through and therefore special people such as your Aunt Marcelle and Uncle Mark Gershien and your amazing friend Hinda Langer were drawn to you. Hashem always provided a loving presence when I could not be there by your side.

Now you are forever free in the Garden of Gan Eden and at peace. I will love you forever throughout eternity and pray for the coming of Moshiach.

I knew Ashlee while I lived in San Francisco. It saddens me to know that another beautiful and wonderful person has been taken so young. I have several memories of Ashlee so I am not able to pick just one. But I will say this much, she was a very beautiful and loving mother. She cared about everyone and was always trying to make someone smile even when she was down. Ashlee, you are always going to be loved and missed terribly. Watch over your children and family and let them feel your love and guidance always.... Love you, Danielle Jones (AKA Amanda)

Ashlee, I can still remember meeting you as a little girl! You were always talkative and so friendly. I still recall times when you were out with Aunt Michelle, the girls, and I. People we'd run into would always assume you were Aunt Michelle's daughter because you two looked so much alike! I remember a couple of times when you came over to our home to hang out with the family, you and I would sit around and talk, attempt to play a guitar, and just have fun. I always enjoyed your company and could sense the free spirit in you. Just a couple weeks ago when Michelle and I were celebrating our wedding anniversary, we pulled out the photo album and saw all the pictures of you and the girls in your dresses. How cute!! I remember commenting on how you resembled Michelle :). It deeply saddens me to think that any opportunity that we could have had to reconnect in the future has been taken away from us. We will be missing you very much. – Uncle Mike

My first memory of Ashlee is feeding her ice cream as a baby. I will always have good memories of babysitting her and hearing her voice as she called me "Aunt Michelle." The last time I saw Ashlee, she stopped by with David as a baby, and we shared baby stories since I was pregnant with Olivia. We took pictures that day and I feel blessed to have those memories. Rest in peace and watch over the family as our bright little Angel, until we meet again.

It was with great sadness that Marcelle and I learned about the passing of your daughter Ashlee. We especially remember Ashlee's gentle spirit and loving nature. Though you may have been kept apart physically by the miles between you, there was always a strong emotional bond and love between the two of you. I am so sorry that we could not be there in person to convey our condolences, but our spirit and prayers will be with you. May God bless and comfort you and with our love and sincerest condolences... Mark and Marcelle

Ashley, my little Asher as I lovingly called her was my breath of fresh air in this polluted world. She was never critical but always forgiving of people. We could always use more gentle souls like hers. I've shed enough tears its time to be glad for her to be away from the pain this life brings to us. I look forward to the day when we are reunited at YHVH's right hand in heaven. My condolences to the family who had the opportunity to know her longer than I. Rest your hearts grandma;and grandpa she is waiting for us with that big mischievous grin. We will all join her soon enough. In the meantime good night and rest now my little Asher, You are missed and loved more than you'll ever know. Ken Lavoie (Kenyata)

Ashlee, You will be missed! I remember when we were kids and we would run around my parents house dancing and playing. Every time we would visit St. Louis you would always be there. Your passings through Colorado always brought me joy to see you. May you rest in peace and you will be missed! Liza Kemp and family

My dear cousin Ashlee will always hold a very special place in my heart. No matter what time of year, no matter what age, there was always on thing I could count on, Ashlee's laugh. From dressing up in ballet outfits and dancing to music, to staying up late at sleepovers, to trying to put makeup on, Ashlee always brought joy and laughter. She was silly and fun, and her heart was always ready to love. I will miss her very much. But that laugh will never leave my heart. Much love to her family at this time, Leslie Harris

Ashlee was a dear young woman in my life. Despite her difficult circumstances, she had a sweetness and a way of being that told you that she cared about you. We got to be close and shared ice cream time and went out for a coffee from time to time. We shared some moments that were hard when I visited her in the hospital. Healing is not so simple. For the last two years she struggled to become a healthier person and was working on this to be able to rejoin her family that she knew cared so much about her. G-d has blessed her with 3 children. It gave her joy to see their photos and know that they were doing well and all of the news about them was so important to her – distance does not separate a mother's heart. She passed from this world on a Shabbos which is an indication of a soul that will receive kindness on High and be able to advocate for those she loved here. Thank you Ashlee for being with us for the duration of your brief stay here on earth. May you have peace and harmony Above. Hinda Langer
