I, too, worked with both Marshall and Marlene at Elgin National Industries back in the late 60s, early 70s. Marshall was indeed a kind person, as well as having a sense of humor. Both he and his (cousin?) Morrie were real sweethearts to work with. Rest in peace, dear Marshall. Josephine SchultzMarcellus, MI 49067

I new Marshall years ago in Chicago, last night I had a dream about him and I started looking into where he was. I found this and I am floored. He knew me as Vince and I worked with him at Welby. I knew his wife as well. I left over 30 years ago and as you can tell he had a big impact on my life. The kindest man I ever met. Thank you Marshall for understand a young man in his 20's trying to learn his way. Always will be remembered as a great man. Thank you for the 12 years I worked at Welbyvince
