Linda Greenberg

OCT 23, 2015

Linda S. Greenberg, 72, of Vizcaya in Delray Beach passed away suddenly on Friday October 23, 2015. Formerly of Annapolis, Maryland, Linda had made her permanent home here in Florida since 2005. Linda was a philanthropist who believed in the importance of contributing to her community and the world. She notably founded Giving Back, Linda's Legacy, a foundation concerned with helping the needs of the homeless, and 4 Uganda.org, a charity that built and funds a medical center in Uganda. Linda was the beloved wife of David for 43 years; the devoted mother of Cory (Nicole) Greenberg and Marc (Nicole) Greenberg; the cherished grandmother of Sabrina, Jayde, and Gwentyth; and the dear sister of Ellen Reiner. Chapel services will be 12:45PM on Tuesday October 27, 2015 at Beth Israel Memorial Chapel, 11115 Jog Road, Boynton Beach, Florida 33437 followed by interment in Eternal Light Memorial Gardens, Boynton Beach, Florida. Those wishing to honor Linda with a memorial contribution are asked to think kindly of Giving Back, Linda's Legacy, 626 C Admiral Drive, Annapolis, Maryland 21401, homelessdrive.org, a 501(c)(3) (tax deductible) organization.

So difficult to believe that our precious Linda has left us. All of our family is still staggering from the loss. But, she will live forever in our hearts and in the lives of the literally thousands of lives she influenced for the better. Much deserved attention has been given to the two best known and most successful charities she began, but there were many, many others— for years, the Annapolis — Walk for Heart in Memory of Charlotte Adler Stern, — began at the Naval Academy Stadium and earned important contributions for the local Heart Association. Later there were the Thanksgiving dinners organized at Camp Letts; these and others led up to Giving Back, Linda — s Legacy and 4uganda.org. Perhaps less well known were the individual and varied animal rescues in which she participated and organized, and the individual people she helped throughout the years. The love and care she provided to her own animals over the years — Macaroni, Claude, Daisy, Bold Ruler, Yolanda, Artichoke to name only a very few — was legend. Who among us could forget, the two sets of baby chicks she presented to our daughter, her Godchild, (several years apart, of course.) We had better luck with the second set. Raised them to adulthood and were able to repatriate the rooster, Marcory, (a portmanteau for Linda — s boys) to Honeysuckle Farm. In support of Linda — s love of animals, we once we stopped traffic on General — s Hwy, helping her carry signs against the expansion of hunting in Maryland. Her concern for the mountain gorillas was behind her launch of the Ugandan charity. Her love of people continued it. When the phone rings, I expect to hear Linda — s voice. I — m gone back to read the literary hundreds of emails in my Linda G file because my inbox is empty. My children and grandchildren continue to weep. No Aunt Linda for Christmas dinner. We are selfishly grieving our own profoundly deep personal loss. We should grieve more for her family, for her other friends, for the world, but there are thirty-seven years of memories to sort through first. And, yet, we know Linda can never leave us. I think I just heard her voice coming to me, not from the phone line, but from the sunbeam that just broke through the dark sky above. If love counts, Linda will live forever. all the DOUGHERTYS

To Dave and the entire family, including her sister Ellen, I send my prayers. My dearest friend Linda passed away suddenly last Friday, leaving a hole in my heart that can never be filled. I knew and loved Linda for many years, and it would take as many years to talk about all of our experiences, from selling her homemade hats at fairs, protesting against hunting in Maryland, to taking a blind goat to the optometrist. I think Dave was never surprised when she came up with a new idea. Since moving to Brazil, it has been difficult to visit Linda, although we stayed in touch by telephone. I am so thankful I was able to visit Linda and Dave earlier this month, while my husband and I were here in the states visiting friends and relatives. God is always leading me to where I need to be. My Deepest Sympathy to the family. Linda was the most loving women I ever met. She touched so many people with her kindness. Linda gave me a photograph of a butterfly, she had taken years ago. I had it framed and it has been hanging on the wall of my bedroom for the past 7 years. Every time I looked at it, I thought of her and David. Now it will have a new meaning. Sorry I can't be with you in this time of sorrow. My thoughts and prayers will be with you.
