Chuck Edelstein posted:

When I received the email from Allen Hall about Alan's passing, Alan's face, his smile flashed in my mind instantly. With it came the feeling, felt so long ago, of his warmth and acceptance so rare in many and especially in one so young. His picture on this page is as I knew him then and remember him now. I have learned a little of his life as an artist and teacher. Both so fitting and appropriate for him. I wish I had known in him in later life and had sought the opportunity to learn from him the making of art and the art of living. From time to time a few of us from our fraternity days gather to share memories. We will remember him fondly. May you find peace. Chuck Edelstein class of 1960. cedelstein@aol.com
