

Harold Wruble

DEC 31, 2014

Scan to Visit

Table of Contents

Obituary	Page 3
Tribute Wall	Page 4

Harold Wruble

DEC 31, 2014

Harold Wruble, 68, of Coconut Creek, FL passed away on Wednesday, December 31, 2014. He is survived by his beloved wife Karen, daughters Laura Shiner, Jennifer Wright and Sarah Pennachio and six grandchildren. A service will be held on Monday, January 5, 2015 at 10:15 A.M. at Beth Israel Boynton Beach Chapel with interment at Eternal Light Memorial Gardens.

Tribute Wall

Harold Wruble

SG

Steve Goldenberg posted:

Harold was my fraternity brother at Memphis State and I spent 4 1/2 years of my life with him. He was one of a kind and a great friend. I will miss him and still smile at the memories he gave me.

December 15 at 7:05 PM

SA

Stan Adelman posted:

I worked with Harold for 25 years at JByrons. He treated me like a little brother and I will never forget how wonderful of a person he was and all of the many things that I learned from him over the years. His sense of humor and wit were second to none.

April 19 at 10:25 AM

JK

Jack Kaplan posted:

I first met Harold when we both were trainees at what was then called Jackson's Byrons in Miami in 1971. When he first became a store manager, I was his first assistant manager in Hialeah. He always was ambitious, intelligent and articulate, and quickly moved up the corporate ladder. But what I remember most about Harold was his great sense of humor. When visiting my store at the Osceola Square Mall in Kissimmee one day, he decided to peruse the mall to see what other stores were there. Noting that at least five or six storefronts were empty, with the signs in them all saying "Another fine store coming soon," Harold was quick to retort: "Boy, this Mr. Fine is really opening a lot of stores here." It was typical of Harold's quick wit. Harold was a very good man. May he rest in peace. Jack Kaplan

January 4 at 11:33 AM

JM

Jim Mackey posted:

Harold was a mentor to me in my early career at J Byrons. He was tough but fair which inspired me to achieve more. Harold always had your back. His sense of humor was one of a kind. My condolences to Karen and the family. Jim Mackey

January 3 at 3:31 PM

Memories only last if you share them

Join us in honoring Harold by contributing to a collection of shared memories.

Scan to Visit