Andrew- No words can ever describe the feelings I have about your passing away! But I will try. The first, that comes to mind is complete shock. To never hear your voice again or share conversations and ideas with you again, is mind blowing! You were a light in life and always lit up a room with your smile. This is such an unexpected passing. You were not sick to my knowledge and you were so very young. Life is not fair! I can't even wrap my mind around why your life ended so suddenly. You and your family did not deserve this! I will miss being able to ever call you again to just say Hi..or you calling me! If there is a heaven and you are there..please read this and know. You are and were loved, my forever friend! Andrew was one of my closest friends. We had many laughs together over the years. I am at a loss and will miss him terribly. I am grateful for seeing him the last 2 months daily as we worked together again. I read something this morning that made me somehow feel slightly better. "But painâ??s like water. It finds a way to push through any seal. Thereâ??s no way to stop it. Sometimes you have to let yourself sink inside of it before you can learn how to swim to the surface." -Katie Kacvinskyl feel like I'll be sunken for a while. Rest in peace my friend.
