Myra S. Wolovick posted:

With Barbara and Sid, we built a lasting and loving friendship while neighbors on Anita Rd., Peabody, MA. Sid and Rubie would diligently work together many times on how to go about fixing "stuff" in our small homes. After Barbara and Sid moved to Marblehead, MA., many times, Sid and I (Myra), at the beach, or when visiting at each others homes, would contemplate seriously, "what will happen to our thoughts, our joys, our worries, plans, etc., when we die." We did agree, of course, that we had no answers. Dearest Sid is finding the answer too soon. Although we cannot be with Sid's dear family for his memorial service, our thoughts, our hearts, our deepest love are with them; with all of you. Myra and Rubie Wolovick
