Joan, David, Tracy and my dearest friend Michael and all of the Family and friends. I am truly sadden for such a great loss to you and your families. I felt like I knew him as part of my family also, maybe it was that warm friendly smile every time I saw him. He always made you feel welcome, and he always had a story to tell me. You all have been, so blessed to have such a great man for 87 years. He is resting now watching over you all. My heart breaks for your loss. We all know, no matter what our beliefs are, We all agree he is always in our hearts. Love to you all and prayers. Friends don't only become friends.They become families and their families are always a part of mine.
