Rachel Lugassy

NOV 19, 1927 - DEC 23, 2019

Rachel Lugassy, 92, of Boynton Beach, FL passed away Monday December 23, 2019. Born in Tunisia, Rachel came to the U.S. by herself at the age of 27 and settled in New York City. While learning English Rachel put herself through beauty school and enjoyed a successful career as a hairstylist, temporarily leaving the field to raise her children. After returning to her profession, Rachel again stopped working in order to raise her three grandchildren. Rachel has been married to David for 57 years. In addition to being the beloved wife of David, Rachel was the devoted mother of Michael (Allison) Lugassy and Aliza (George) Campbell; the cherished grandmother of Stephanie (Michael) Vespoli, Eric Lugassy, and Kai Campbell; and the dear sister of Andre Sitbon. Graveside services will be held 10 AM Thursday at Eternal Light Memorial Gardens in Boynton Beach. For those wishing to honor Rachel with a memorial contribution the family suggests to kindly consider the Alzheimer's Association, 31655 Palm Beach Lakes Blvd, Suite 1000, West Palm Beach, FL 33401, www.alz.org

I met Rachel during my time at the Spot Salon. Rachel was by far the sweetest and most humble person ever. Her presence came with the most welcoming energy and truly warranted a moment to just sit and chat. She always asked about my children and would always tell me to make sure I ate! She was incredibly proud of her family and treated me no different than that. It was a great honor knowing her and David.

Though it has been some time since I have seen, Rachel, I have very fond memories of the time in my life when she was like a second mom to me. She was a warm, loving lady with a wonderful sense of humor. May her memory be a blessing to all her family and friends. ❤️❤️❤️
