I cannot share only one memory. From an infant to adulthood I have been in love with this kid. If I wasn't there physically I kept up with him through his parents and through Facebook. When our boys were babies, 5 months apart, I learned that babies do have their own special language. They went to the temple nursery school together for a couple of years. My mother loved babysitting him and Carol and my mom did a tag team type of thing. We brought the boys to The Magic Kingdom and the boys went walking off together. We were freaking out. Stephen picked up a pay phone and called the operator and said "my name is Stephen and I am 6 years old and I am with Andrew who is 5. Our parents are lost." Such a great kid. I can't continue. I know they are together again. I have such history with the family and they have been through so much pain. I love you all and I am truly sorry for the loss of Stephen. Karen Philiba Parsons

Steve was a great friend and person. We had some amazing years in Parkland. From playing basketball everyday to a one day trip to Disney. I look back at those memories and smile. I wish we would have remained friends as time passed but unfortunately that's life. I'm glad we spoke on the phone last year and caught up. I'm sure he will be missed by many people, myself one of them.

Rest in Peace Steve. You were the big brother I never had when I was a young kid. There's an endless catalogue of hilarious memories in the neighborhood, even at my expense when you would bust my chops. Brandon and I tried to emulate your skills on the basketball court and your ways with the girls. We ended up distancing over the years but the childhood memories are there to stay and I will keep them close. Give my best to Larry and Carol in your next chapter. They were my second parents and are sorely missed, as you will be too.
