Ida Sarah Lichtzer

APR 14, 2020

Ida “Sarah” Lichtzer, a Stamford resident, passed away peacefully on Tuesday, April 14, 2020, in The Village at Waveny, New Canaan, Connecticut. She was 92 years old.

Sarah was born on February 2, 1928, in Jersey City, New Jersey. She was the daughter of the late Max and Rose Rosen. Sarah enjoyed going to NYC with her sisters and spending the day on the Diamond Exchange. On February 10, 1951, in a snowstorm, Sarah married her “perfect gentleman”, Hy Lichtzer. They were married for 51 wonderful years. They chose Stamford, Connecticut as their home to raise their beautiful daughters. Sarah was a member of Temple Beth El’s Sisterhood, a Girl Scout Leader and taught art at Springdale School’s after-school program in the 1960’s. She enjoyed sewing, baking, and cooking for her family.

In 1989, after Hy retired, they moved to Boynton Beach, Florida. Sarah and Hy enjoyed traveling to Elderhostel Senior Trips by themselves or with their friends’ “clique”. Sarah filled her time taking ceramic classes, painting clowns and playing canasta. In recent years, she enjoyed passing the time coloring.

Sarah was predeceased by her husband, Hyman Lichtzer, her son, Keith Arthur Lichtzer, and her sisters, Dorothy Rosen and Jeannette Ambrosino.

She is survived by her daughters, Deborah Lichtzer and Judith Lichtzer, both of Stamford; her granddaughter, Erica Blumrosen; as well as her grandchildren from her heart, Jami Birnbaum, Elyssa Walker (John) and her great grandchildren, Alex and Rylie Walker; as well as several nieces and nephews.

We would like to thank Sarah’s caregiver, Susan Perreca, who has been her very good friend for the past five years. We would also like to thank the staff at The Village at Waveny and their Adult Day Program for treating Sarah with the kindness and dignity that she deserved.

Judy, Deborah, Erica and the family clan, We will remember Sarah. When she came to work with Judy, she would sit at the oval table with her own light, her coloring book and colored pencils and work for hours on creating these amazing works of art. She was quiet, content and busy. She was kind, sweet and friendly to all. She was loved by her daughters and her very close knit extended family. May her memories be a blessing. May she rest in peace. Gail and Stephen Trell Stamford, Connecticut
