

PHILIP DAVID MARKOVITZ

JUL 13, 2020

Scan to Visit

Table of Contents

Obituary	Page 3
Tribute Wall	Page 4

PHILIP DAVID MARKOVITZ

JUL 13, 2020

Phil Markovitz died peacefully on July 13, 2020 at his home in Boynton Beach, FL following a long illness. Born March 31, 1941 in Philadelphia, PA was the son of Bernard Markovitz and Anna Grossman. He was preceded in death by his parents and first wife, Penny Freedman. Surviving are his wife, Mary Markovitz of Boynton Beach, FL, his daughter, Linda Hecht (Todd) of Wynnewood, Pa, step-son, Jason Blovad (Christina) of Tustin, Ca and sister, Ilien (Ramon) Obod of Bala Cynwyd, PA. Also surviving are six grandchildren.

After attending Central High in Philadelphia, Phil did his undergraduate work at Penn State and received his degree from Temple University. He had a distinguished, life-long career in Commercial Real Estate in Philadelphia and Hershey, PA and after retirement, in South Florida.

His love of symphonic music and melodies from the Great American Song Book gave him many hours of listening pleasure. An avid reader, he enjoyed his daily Wall Street Journal and biographies of composers. He delighted friends with his quick wit and sparkling commentary on our national life, child rearing and political foibles. Donations may be made to the Cleveland Clinic or Hadassah. Private services will be held Thursday.

Tribute Wall

PHILIP DAVID MARKOVITZ

Sandy posted:

Sending our sincerest condolences and know we are thinking of you at this difficult time. Sandy and Arny Pickholtz

July 15 at 12:00 PM

Charles Kibler July 18 at 12:56 AM

Phil was a smart, dedicated and innovated real estate leader at his work and a wonderful humanitarian in his life. His quip wit was always welcomed in the decision making process. My condolences to the familyChuck Kibler

Memories only last if you share them

Join us in honoring PHILIP by contributing to a collection of shared memories.

Scan to Visit