My dear great Aunt Sally was such a wonderful woman. She was always positive, always charming, always made you feel special, always loving, always funny, always caring, and she had the best laugh. She always lit up a room and had such positive energy. I always enjoyed our phone conversations. She never forgot anyone, and always asked about my husband as well as our rescue dogs. I remember our family gatherings as a child and the great times I had with Aunt Sally. She just made everyone feel special when she spoke to them. And, I feel special to have had her in my life. My heart goes out to my dear cousins, her daughters Amy and Wendy and Tina, and her grandson Corey, and an entire family of nieces and nephews who loved her so very much. Wherever you are, I'm sure you're with Uncle Bill. We will miss you Aunt Sally.
