Evelyn Bandel

AUG 15, 2020

Evelyn Bandel, of Delray Beach, FL, passed away on August 15, 2020. She was the beloved wife of Manny for nearly 69 years; cherished and devoted mother of the late Bob (Terri) Bandel and Steve (Elyse) Bandel; adored grandmother of Jeffrey, Jake and Alexandra Bandel; devoted daughter to the late Sadie and the late Harry Nagel; and loving sister to Rosalyn (Saul) Elfman, the late Barbara Strachman and the late Conrad “Bobby” Nagel. Evelyn was also a precious aunt to many nieces and nephews and a dear friend to so many.

Born in Boston in July 1931, Evelyn relocated to the Bronx, NY, upon her marriage to Manny, with the family later resettling in Mamaroneck, NY. For 26 years, Evelyn taught pre-school in the Bronx, committed to her work with some of the city’s neediest children. After retiring and relocating to Delray Beach, FL, she continued her dedication to helping others as a volunteer and companion to the elderly through Jewish Family Services.

Evelyn was full of love and life, and her smile could light up the room. She will be an everlasting presence to all who knew and loved her.

Internment will take place Tuesday, August 18, 2020, 11:15 am at Star of David Memorial Gardens, 7701 Bailey Road, North Lauderdale, FL.

My Aunt Evelyn was a bright presence in our family, loving, giving and very, very funny when she wanted to be. She was there for me when I needed a positive word or touch growing up and for both my wife, Leslie, and me after we were married. I will miss her terribly but always think of her with a smile on my face and a warm glow in my heart.

Evelyn (and Manny) were my adoptive parents here in Florida. I was called to fix phones, printers and whatever technological issues came their way. Evelyn was always generous to a fault. We enjoyed ice cream cones and Ocean's One for lunch. She will surely be missed by Rainberry Bay and me personally. Be at peace, Evelyn. Beautiful lady.
