Carole Sue Tulchin

AUG 14, 2020

Carole Sue Tulchin (Levy) went to heaven on 8/14/2020. Loving wife of Howard Tulchin (pre-deceased) of 40 years. Proud mother of Constance Tulchin-Wall and grand-mother of Courtney Wall. Carole was a RN, receiving her education at Flushing school of nursing in NY. She started her career at LIJ hospital and worked in camps, schools, home health, hospice and was an EMT for a local Fire department on Long Island. Her diverse career also included running a printing press in the family business and being the DON of an ILF in Florida. Carole enjoyed traveling with friends and family, and enjoying a good meal out, or just relaxing at home. While in Florida she joined a local tennis league where she played doubles for many years. She retired and for the last 6 years was enjoying being home with her doggies and spending time with her girls. Her life ended to soon, she will be missed by many and left her mark wherever she went.

In lieu of Flowers, please send donations in her name to ASPCA, American Heart Association or Tree for Life in Israel.

Carole was my friend and neighbor in Delray. She was so fun to be around. We went to casinos and shared many a cocktail. I am sad to hear of her passing. Thank you Connie for keeping in touch. I hope all your wonderful memories of your Mom bring you and Courtney much needed comfort. I know how much you will miss her.
