I met Elinore 10 years ago, after her beloved sister Marsha past away. We became very close over the years. She was the grandmother I never had. My heart breaks that she is gone. She is and was a beautiful soul. I will miss her dearly. ❤️

I remember Meeting Elinore several years ago at a Kravis Center performance. Her beautiful smile and cheerful conversation about her sister's love of music made my heart sing. Over the years we had fun going to lunch both at the residence and at local restaurants. I loved to surprise her with dark chocolate truffles and see her smile and light up with a twinkle in her eye. I will miss this loving and gracious lady. I was blessed to have known Elinore and my life was more beautiful because Elinore was part of my life. Margaret May Damen
