Although we didn't see each other often (except for weddings), it was always a pleasure seeing my cousin, Sharon. Sharon was kind, supportive, loving, and matter-of-fact when she needed to be (she was blessed to have both of her parents qualities). She showed unconditional love for her family. I know Sharon will be missed by many, however, I also know we are all truly fortunate to have had Sharon in our lives. And that's something I will continue to be grateful for. Much love to family, relatives, and friends. Essy and Alton
