A lifetime ago Joan and Joel made Friday nights at the laundromat far more fun than they should have been for all of us. We loved Joan with all our hearts and she will be much missed. Kevin and Jane Antonio

What a joy it was to meet Joan here in Kings Point. She was eager to learn to quilt and was clearly a natural, soon designing and creating her own modern art with fabric. We also connected on our political views, and I appreciated our deep and far-ranging conversations. I will miss Joan more than seems possible from our too-brief friendship.
