David Cooper posted:

My condolences on your loss. I have known Bob for more than 17 years and over those years we have become friends. Bob shared with me how much he and Toby enjoyed spending time with their children and grandchildren. Last summer Bob cherished the time in Philly with family before he and Toby went away for their trip. When he turned 70 Bob told me how much he enjoyed spending a week with his kids and grandkids at the resort in Arizona. Bob was always a nice guy who talked of his family proudly and lovingly. We talked through the years and exchanged stories of our families together and I will miss him. Sincerely, David & Simonee' Cooper
