In later years, Arlene's passion for the Arts led her to take Ballroom Dance Lessons, which she excelled at. She was an award-winning Ballroom Dancer and earned several top places in the Senior Division across various categories in National Ballroom Competitions in New Orleans, Las Vegas and locally.

Arlene's love of fashion was her hallmark, and she was always well attired in the latest up to date fashion. She never left the house without adding a personal touch to her attire, be it a scarf or special statement accessory. She belonged to the Red Hat Society and red was her statement color. A lifelong

She will be remembered as a strong businesswoman, who dedicated her life to the love of family, animals, her country, and community
