I remember Marvin from my college years. I was best friends with his youngest daughter. Marvin seemed laid back, always donning a smile on his face. He enjoyed golf and had a lively social life. May he rest peacefully. Beth Garver

Thanks Beth, that was very kind.

Nancy Pickard posted:

I have many memories of Uncle Marvin from our years on Groveland. He not only added fun to the day-but his ability to swallow a banana whole has never left my mind. As a matter of fact, I have never met anyone else who could do that. He is also the only one who ever called me Nancy Sue and he never called me anything else. My dad and uncle Marvin had a great bond and it is beautiful to think about. I truly hope they are together now. I am sending prayers to you aunt Beverly and all the rest of you as well. May he rest in peace. Love, Nancy you made me smile as you wrote about my dad. Thank you for your words. My dad will be missed, as will Uncle Irving.
