Carly Sananes

NOV 12, 1994 - APR 16, 2021

C arly Anne Sananes

11/12/1994 – 4/16/2021

Her journey began on November 12, 1994 in Rockland County, NY, but she stopped counting years at age 26. She was a loving daughter to her parents, Uzi and Tina, and a loving a protective big sister to her siblings, Jenna and Danny. Carly was also a very special granddaughter, cousin and niece. Carly cherished her childhood when things were so much simpler and the memories of family vacations and longed for more of them in the future. She was a kind and welcoming human being who never met a stranger. She had a side splitting, contagious laugh that could shake a room. Carly was a beautiful soul taken too soon who is already terribly missed.

Your short life was a blessing,

Your memory is a treasure,

You are loved beyond words,

And missed beyond measure.

May God take away all of your pain and suffering and wrap you in peace for the rest of eternity.

Death took your body,

God now has your soul,

Our minds hold all of our memories,

I can't believe I didn't know this happened sooner.. Carly was my best friend in middle school. I was really shy however, she was so outgoing that she made me open up more. Her presence made you gravitate towards her and her laugh was contagious. We had so many fun memories that I'll hold onto forever. We would laugh endlessly every time we were together. She was always a great friend. I'm so sorry this happened. You'll be in my heart forever.

I'll never forget meeting you at Freedom Shores... you were the most kind, gentle, and friendly person I had ever met! You actually inspired me to be more open to people :) I remember watching you, Emmi, and one other of your best friends crying your eyes out our last day of 5th grade and just feeling my heart hurt so much for you all because I think it was finally sinking in that we were growing up and moving on in life and nothing would ever be the same again.. I could tell how much you cherished being young and free... We too lost touch but later connected again after high school and I was so happy! Thank you for all our memories and your radiant light which will always shine through your spirit and your smile :blush: :heart:

Carly was my middle school bestfriend. She got me threw so much. This breaks my heart so much to hear so many months after the fact. I had talked to her a few years ago while she was in recovery with a few Coworkers of mine, u could really never say a bad thing about her she was so amazing. I'm so sorry for this loss this one hurt. you were one of the first people that actually showed me kindness and compassion and didn't judge me on who i was. and we became best friends super quickly. we bonded over my chemical romance and myspace, and would spend hours on the phone just talking about nonsense. you were too good for this world and i'm sorry to see this. love you forever

I had the privilege of meeting Carly in the rehab Changes with Anthony whom she was super close to. I got sober at Changes if only she could have to. :(Her whole vibe was contagious and you always knew what was on her mind or how she felt. Amazing soul was lost and I wish I could've seen you one more time. LOVE JON AND ZOE

I remember that everyone thought you was to much to be on my case load. I seen the look in your eyes and the willingness to change. You made me smile a lot, because your love for life was something that I had never seen before. I will miss you, but I have more smiles than tears. Love you baby girl. Anthony J.

Hi Carly! I met you when you worked with your mother and us. I learned things about you from your Mom and observed what a beautiful woman you were becoming. You were the best in lip syncing I ever saw and a beautiful hair model. I'm sure you. Have a special place with the Angels. You will always be in the heart and minds of everyone you touched in your short life. Amen.Charlene

May she rest in paradise. Carly is the sweetest, goofiest, and most out going girl I know. She made my day seeing her and her jokes would make anyone laugh out loud. She was such a free spirit and any stranger was welcomed for a laugh with her. May G--d be with her family members and friends, my prayers are with you. Carly please look over us and send us some goofiness from heaven you will be missed

My dear Tina and Frank, I am just blown away with grief; I just saw her a few weeks ago and she was so happy and going down the right path. I told her she had her whole life ahead of her and not to dwell on the past. I am so saddened I can't even talk. I love you both Love, Aunt Hildy
