I met Hank for the first time during a spring break visit during my time at Clemson. Jeff invited me to come down. Both Hank and Francine adopted me on the spot. I became like another son for them and over the years they became my surrogate parents. Hank had a love for tennis, the San Francisco Giants and Jazz. Although I never got the hang of tennis and could never betray my Boston Red Sox, I gained an enduring love for Jazz and the Blues that I owe directly to Hank Goodman. Somewhere now Hank is listening to Louie Armstrong, Benny Goodman, Count Basie and the other legends of Jazz and he has a smile on his face. We love you Hank!

Hank is one of my mentors. When I came to work with him in Florida he welcomed me, taught and made me a part of his family. He and Francine are and always will be a part of my family and I love them both. We have lost a dear friend and a wonderful person. Hey Hank, you know I have a hard time saying this as a Dodger fan...Go Giants!!!! Love you Buddy.....Phil

Lost my father at a very young age. Was fortunate enough to meet Jeff and the Goodman family right out of high school. Got to know Hank well through my 20s and 30s. Was nice to have that father like figure in my life to talk sports and anything else that life had to offer back then. Thanks Hank Jim Povich and family
