Don Altshuler posted:

Morty (or as we called him), Skippy, played together, went to camp together although I was two years older. His grandfather and mine were brothers who came to the US together and work in the umbrella business together. I am not sure what that makes us but our families were very close in the 1940's. I am going to Palm Beach for the first time and I wanted to look Skippy up. It sadden me to read of his demise I was happy to read about his family and his life. With love from a person you never met, Don Altshuler
