Lawrence Rosenthal

March 10, 1931 - December 2, 2021

Larry Rosenthal passed away peacefully on December 2, 2021. He is survived by his love, his wife of 70 years, Rose, his daughters Karen and Lisa (Karl), his grandchildren, Brooke (Jeff), Jared (Casie), Carey (Robin), Clint (Maria), Heath and Sara (fiancé Max), great grandchildren, Alexis, Ethan, Berk, Cooper, Scotty, Nicolas, Gabriel and Hayden. He is also survived by his brother, Jack, his sister, Joan and many nieces and nephews who were very special to him.

Larry grew up in Brooklyn, NY and graduated from James Madison High School. He proudly served his country in the Korean Conflict.

Larry and his family moved to Ft. Lauderdale in 1961 where he began a long and successful career as a produce broker at the Pompano Farmers' Market.

Grandpa, his favorite title, cherished the time he spent with his grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Larry loved golf, tennis, football, pool and playing and watching many other sports. He enjoyed all these sports even more because they allowed him to compete and have fun with his brother, grandsons, and many dear friends.

Larry was also a talented artist who created many beautiful paintings and shared them with family and friends.

He will be greatly missed by everyone who knew him.

As Larry's sister I don't have just one fondest memory,I have hundreds of fondest memories of my sweetloving brother. One that makes me smile, is how he would beg me to do his homework so he could go and play basketball. I will miss him every day of my life. I love him dearly and always will.
