I worked with Brian @ VZW. He was a great co - worker and friend. We had many meals together. I remember how excited Brian was when he met Lisa. She's a great girl and I've only been in her company few times since before they move to Florida. I also still have a T-shirt that Brian was nice enough to get me when he went to a NASCAR race in Alabama when he went to visit Tara. Is a tragic loss for Brian's family is all who knew him. Throughout his battle Brian never lost his sense of humor and easy going way. I will miss him dearly. S.L.

Denise Driscoll lit a candle in honor of Brian.

I remember meeting Brian for the first time during an interview many years ago in West Palm at OSC. His calm demeanor and steady personality was evident. He continued to be a good team member and I admired his attitude during his fight against cancer. I enjoyed many conversations with him which usually ended with talking about his wife Lisa, who he loved deeply. Peace to you, Brian and condolences to Lisa and family. Denise
