My Mama was my rock! It was my 'HONOR" to have you live with me and take care of you after Daddy Don passed, 7-2020. I miss making your cappiccino, folding laundry together, hearing you say at your last bite of supper, what's for dessert. I miss tucking you in at night, our nightly prayers and our hand symbols declaring our love for each others, your gentle kiss that was always followed with "thank you my daughter", and YES the times we cried together & brought each other the comfort we both needed. Thank you Mama for raising me to always be a lady, love GOD first, to always stand tall even in the face of adversity and MOST OF ALL, To Know My Worth! I know Mama that you will be watching over me until the day I join you admist all of GODS Glory! Forever I remain your Daughter..XXOO
