Milt Moskowitz posted:

Chick was one of those decent guys who contributed to our enjoyment at Gleneagles with his considerate leadership as captain of our team for many years. He was approachable and reliable and respected by his team members. In spite of his continued health complications over the many years, he always was available to fill in when we were short a player for doubles. He was a real "trouper". We missed Chick last year when he was unable to participate and sadly, he missed us. But when he did spontaneously arrive at the tennis centre, he would always draw a crowd of his "old" cronies and former team members to chat about "things". He will be sadly missed by many. Rest in Peace, Chick.
