When Ann came into our father Ben's life after our Mom passed away, she lit a spark in him. He was so happy with her in the years they had together. Her loving influence on him added years to his life. He was a changed man for the better by her influence. And Ann pulled us too into her life. She welcomed us into her family. Our lives were so much for the better when Ann entered them, and we will miss her. Love, Greg Eisen, Charlene Souriano, Michael Eisen.

"Aunt" Ann took us into the family just as she took Jill's Uncle Ben into the family. She had an expansive view of family and embraced many in her long life. She always expressed gratitude for what she had in her life, especially her family and relationships. She thanked her husband Hy for the years he gave her and appreciated her time with Ben. Ben's life was enriched by the time he spent with Ann and we are sure he was grateful for his good luck in meeting her and their life together. We will miss you Aunt Ann -- you were a giving soul - you gave to us and so many who knew you. Our sympathies to your family. Lovingly, Jill, Bob and Amanda
