Learning of Lawrence's death saddened me immensely. Knowing him in my teens and in High School in Asheville, NC as well through my Jewish friends, I did not get to truly know Lawrence in his later life. I debated him once in AZA and he was brilliant. The kind of mind that moved me to inspiration. In recent years, he read my Novels "The Sky Club" and "Rendezvous in Majorca" under my pen name "Ian Feldman" and gave me excellent critiques of both as well as praise. I will never forget who he was and feel very sad that he has left us with a vacuum that can never really be replaced with anyone else. "Here's to Lawrence Greenberg, a great man, a Jewish mind for the ages, and irreplaceable - "BRAVO" LAWRENCE, Shalom Aleichem, My Old Friend. Mel Ian Feldman

My deepest condolences. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. Lawrence was one of the smartest Attorney's regarding Trusts and Estates I was privileged to work with many years ago at Chemical Trust Company. He was also an invaluable friend giving glowing references of me after I started my own business. Lawrence was a good man; he will be missed.

My children remember Lawrence fondly and as such a kind gentleman. He joined our family in NYC at the Natural History Museum after Eddie & Rosie's wedding weekend. It was such a sweet outing to join in! He will be missed by those who knew him, especially his pointing dance moves 😊. Love, The Gagnon family
