Robin Wakefield posted:

Sylvia and Dave were very close friends of my parents, Jack and Elsie Wakefield. They shared so many laughs and good times. Even after the loss of my parents, I visited Sylvia every time I was in FL, and I called her often, and always on her birthday. I remember Sylvia singing so sweetly on many occasions. Last night my husband and I called Sylvia as we wanted to stop by and visit her and her beloved animals:). It was her disconnected number that gave me a lump in my throat. Today, through a google search, I learned of her passing. I miss her very much:heart: Rest In Peace with Dave and mom and dad. You're probably playing cards now. Love you. -Robin
