Elliott was my guy. Going to miss him. He had his hands in so many businesses and he is one of the people who inspired me everyday. Man it hurts to know my dog is now up in heaven ❤️

I meet a Elliot at a California knife show about 20 years ago. He was selling among other things reconstituted gem stone scales for knife handles. We became friends and when I would come to Arizona to visit in-laws I would always stop by his office to visit. I worked for a large supermarket chain that Elliot was familiar with in California. He commented that he loved the generic beer we sold in a light brown can that was labeled in black with the words BEER on the can. So when I would visit Arizona i would bring him a full case of that beer and trade him for material. He was a very generous man and I'm sure he will be missed. RIP my friend.

Just did some detective work as I hadn't heard back after leaving several messages for Elliot. I was scared to look at the obituaries, and alas, my concern was confirmed. What can I say? I'm so so sad. Now, Elliot is back with his life long friends from Brooklyn. My husband Donald, Sara and Alan, Linda and now Elliot Elliot and I used to reminisce when we got together. We certainly enjoyed the times we were all gathered as a group. There is something about life long friends that cannot be explained. So grateful to have been a part. Rest in peace my friend. Give all the departed kisses and hugs. My condolences to the family.
