Irene Musinsky

DEC 1, 1923 - DEC 6, 2022

IRENE MUSINSKY, 99, a resident of Boca Raton and West Palm Beach, formerly of Swampscott, Massachusetts, passed away peacefully on December 6, 2022 after a battle with cancer. She was pre-deceased in 2007 by her loving husband Sidney of nearly sixty years and is survived by her sons Donald (Janice), John, and grandchildren Jacob, Hadley, Stephanie, Elizabeth and Alec. Irene was a long time member of Kernwood Country Club in Salem, Mass and Breakers West Country Club in West Palm Beach, FL. Irene loved to play bridge and was a well-respected player in Palm Beach County bridge circles. She played at a high level into her late nineties and achieved "Diamond Life Master" status in 2018 with over 5400 points, a ranking attained by less than 3% of all players.

The family will receive friends and have a memorial service at the home of Donald Musinsky from 12:00 to 6:00 on Thursday December 22nd

Charles Musgrove posted:

I was so sorry to see Irene's name in the latest bridge bulletin. She and I were partners once a week for years, first in West Palm Beach and later in Boca. She was still a fierce competitor even as her vision got worse and she needed help sorting her cards. We last played just before the pandemic and she helped me become an emerald life master. I regret that I was unable to play with her again after live games resumed, but I know she was still going strong. Her family has my deepest sympathy.
