Cheryl And Ron Laski lit a candle in honor of Lawrence.

When I was a young mother Larry was the man I always turned to. He was not only my pharmacist but he was my friend he always knew what remedy would be best if my children only had a cold or should I go to the doctor. For so many years while living in Ringwood we were good friends whether it be skiing together or or simply sharing an afternoon at his home. We were fortunate to be part of his life and the life of his family for so many years we will miss you Larry we will miss you very much.
