Sandra Mae Ricca

JAN 16, 1944 - SEP 3, 2023

Sandra Mae Ricca, 79, of Boca Raton, Fl passed away peacefully on September 3, 2023 with her children by her side. She was born in Brooklyn, NY and spent most of her life in the surrounding area prior to moving to South Florida in 1998 to be closer to her family. Sandra was a beautiful lady, inside and out, and left us too soon. She will be deeply missed by her family and friends.

Sandra, “The Rebel” was the little sister of the late Barbara Burdman and the daughter of the late Irving and Ruth (Lubinsky) Zekser. To Sandra, there was no better friend in the world than her sister. In life they shared so much laughter, love, tears and devotion. When her sister married the late Stanley Burdman, she gained a loving brother-in-law.

Sandra graduated from Lincoln High School in 1961 and worked as a secretary until devoting her life to raise her children, Gregg and Danielle. Once grown she enjoyed many cherished adventures with her adult children. Sandy returned to the workforce as an executive secretary for various companies. Never less than stunning, she lived her life with impeccable style and grace. Sandra was an avid tennis player, reader and collector of antiques. She loved her cats, white tigers, dark chocolate, shoes, the color lavender, orchids, country line dancing, watching Jeopardy, Pavarotti, and all things fancy... with a special affection for Mr. Jon Bon Jovi. Sandra was a social person who had a circle of long-time friends who meant the world to her. They enjoyed a lifetime of memories, filled with adventures, laughter and tears.

Sandra’s greatest joy began with the birth of her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She fell in love with being a Meemaw and a Geega and devoted the rest of her life to being their biggest fan. They were truly the loves of her life.
