My earliest memories of cousin Joyce were recalling that she was the most most beautiful woman I ever met. I will always remember her sharp wit and infectious laugh!

a little before Linda met her cousin Joyce I shared our household with her. we always shared a room ever tho we had a third bedroom (the middle room). we shared secrets, made a tent between both of the beds, we rearranged the beds at least twice a year thinking we got new furniture. Marty and I are so happy we moved to FL, thanks to our son and daughter in law, encouraging we would have a better life in our retirement. needless to say we were close to see my sister as often as possible, but no way thinking we would be watching her fade away. R.I.P. JOYCE. I was never a jealous person, however I always envied your beauty. love u so very much. GG & Marty G!

My sweet cousin was the only one to come see me in the hospital after my 2nd heart attack & I was so depressed I said no visitors, but she came anyway to cheer me up.

Doris, you and Dom were always favorites of Marty & me! miss u, Cousin Doris, hope to see you soon. May Dom R.I.P. with Cousin Joyce!

Jonathon Diaz October 15 at 6:52 PM

Thanks for sharing Doris. Sorry to hear she was the only one but shows what kind of heart she had.

I will never forget cutting and styling Joyce's hair. I loved that I could help her with her hair and that she always liked the turn out:) She was smart, beautiful, and funny. And a true warrior. She will be missed indeed. My prayers for comfort to her entire family. :pray:🕊️:dove_of_peace:
