My Beautiful Grandmother, you are gone but will never be forgotten. I will cherish every moment we had together and do right by you in my life. You gave the world to me. I am so happy you got to meet your great grandson and be a part of his life as well as share my wedding day with me. You loved your family more than anything and we all love you. You always told me about your brother growing up and now you can finally see him again. It's the hardest thing to see you go grandma, I never pictured life without you in it. I hope this message reaches you and you know I love you more than money can buy. May you rest in peace until we meet again. Love Adam, Dani and Chase
