Barbara R. Kramer

AUG 24, 1930 - JAN 1, 2024

Barbara was born in Queens, NY and spent her young life in the NY area and married Franklin Kramer, the love of her life in 1951. After Nancy's birth, they moved to Lexington, MA where Harold joined the family in 1956. The Kramers also made stops in Elmhurst, IL and St Simon's Island, GA before returning to Lexington after each. After Nancy and Harold went off to college, Bobby and Frank moved to Briarcliff Manor, NY and soon began snowbirding in Delray Beach and Boynton Beach, FL. Finally, Bobby and Frank settled in Boynton full time to focus on the warm weather, frequent bridge games, hosting family and friends, and waterfront dining.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Irving and Malvina Richter; her sister Lucille and her husband, Bernie Schwartz; and her Husband of 62 years, Frank, who pre-deceased her 2013. She is survived by her daughter, Nancy Ducharme; her son, Harold Kramer; her grandchildren Allison and husband Jay Marcus, Eric and wife Emily Goldman, Charlotte and husband Derek Russo, and Zachary and wife Lisa Kramer; and her great grandchildren Reuven, Gilad, and Ephraim Marcus, Fisher and James Goldman, Taylor Russo, and Casey and Ryan Kramer.

In lieu of flowers please send any donations to Trustbridge Hospice of Palm Beach County, of any other preferred charity, in Barbara's name.

Elyse Fischman posted:

Barbara and Harold visited with me on my porch after one of their many dinners at one of their favorite places next to my apartment building, Hurricane Alley. We sat and talked for hours . The last time I visited with her this past October at Barbara's home, she gave me the grand tour of her place and spoke about her upcoming move to Harbors Edge. It was to be a lovely next phase of her life. May she rest in peace reunited with her husband.
